

WYCOMBE WELSH GO HOME

THE LURE of the leek has set the adrenalin flowing through the veins of two Wycombe Wanderers as they prepare for the Cup trip to Cardiff on Saturday.

Teachers Dylan Evans and Geoff Anthony are both from the valleys—although Evans's parents left Llanelli when young Dylan was six weeks old.

But Evans, 26, says defiantly: "I'm as patriotic as the next Welshman. I won some of the highest honours of my Soccer career in Wales when I played in amateur internationals at Merthyr and Barry.

"I've still got aunts and uncles in the Llanelli area and they'll be at Ninian Park to cheer me on."

Great

History teacher Anthony spent 12 months at Ninian Park as a youngster playing Combination football.

"This one means everything to me although I don't feel I'm going back with anything to prove," he said.

"It's a great club and I enjoyed the year I was there immensely."

Anthony who comes from Swansea never turned pro, though he got an offer from Nottingham Forest.

"I didn't think I was ever quite good enough to turn pro, and anyway, it was either Cardiff or no one for me.

"I can't wait for Saturday's match. We can beat them, because we are as skilful and can match them for fitness."
